

Dave has been in vegetation management his entire working career of 40 years. He has worked in every capacity from crew level to supervision and management and has served on numerous industry associations as both President and Board Member. Dave received the UAA Education Award in 2009 for industry leadership in providing training in stewardship and Best Management Practices for rights-of-way IVM. He also serves as a school director and trustee for a local community college.