

Tom brings to TREE Fund life-long experience in arboriculture and a lasting passion for the care of trees. Tom's knowledge and appreciation for trees is in the blood — he is a third-generation arborist, rooted in his family's business at Wolf Tree, now a part of Davey. A native of Knoxville, TN, he has served for many years and in many different leadership roles for the Southern Chapter ISA, ISA Council of Representatives, and the City of Knoxville Tree Board.
