

TOPIC: UTILITY ARBORICULTURE RESEARCH

TREE Fund Awards and Webinars as of 8/2018*

Year	Awardee	Organization	Project Title
2018	John Goodfellow	Bio-Compliance Consulting, Inc.	The Cost-effectiveness of Integrated Vegetation Management
2018	Dr. Carolyn G. Mahan	Penn State Altoona	Long term effects of electrical right-of-way vegetation management on floral and faunal communities
2016	Christopher M. Halle	Sonoma State University	Integrated Vegetation Management on Powerline Rights-of-Ways: Effects of Vegetation Treatment on Plant Communities and Wildlife Diversity
2014	John Goodfellow	BioCompliance Consulting, Inc.	Development of a Business Case for Scheduling Utility Vegetation Management on a Preventive vs. Corrective Maintenance Basis
2013	John Goodfellow	BioCompliance Consulting, Inc.	Development of a Business Case for Scheduling Utility Vegetation Management on a Preventive vs. Corrective Maintenance Basis
2012	John Goodfellow	BioCompliance Consulting, Inc.	Development of a Business Case for Scheduling Utility Vegetation Management on a Preventive vs. Corrective Maintenance Basis
2005	RJ Laverne	Davey Resource Group	Identification of Outage-Causing Trees through Predictive Management
2004	Shawn Bernick	Rainbow Treecare Scientific Advancements	The Efficacy of Paclobutrazol Application as it Relates to Timing of Utility Right-of-Way Pruning
2001	Dr. Michael Kuhns	Utah State University	The Role of Education in Acceptability of Directional Pruning in Utility Line Clearance

*Note: Website archives start in 2004.