

Hyland R. Johns Grant Program ANNUAL REPORT 2024

The focus of the Hyland R. Johns Grant Program is to support research that directly effects the work of industry professionals.

TOTAL DONATIONS

January 1 – December 31, 2024: $36,781 (4 gifts)

Gifts greater than $500

- International Society of Arboriculture
- SavATree

AWARDED IN 2024

2024 Hyland R Johns Grant Program was awarded to Daniel Burcham with Colorado State University for their project titled, "Developing Improved Methods for Assessing the Structural Integrity of Decayed Trees," for the amount of $24,997.00

OUTREACH IN 2024

October 2024

2019 Hyland R. Johns Grant Program recipient, Dr. Robert Fahey with Lara Roman and Levon Bigelow presented their findings for the TREE Fund Webinar Series with a presentation titled, "Predictors of Street Tree Survival in Philadelphia: Tree Traits, Biophysical Environment, and Socioeconomic Context." 902 people attended the webinar with 745 awarded an ISA Continuing Education Unit.

2024 APPLICATIONS

Received fifteen applications in 2024 Grant Cycle.

